

Magnox

Joint Berkeley/Oldbury SSG Update
2 November 2011
Steve McNally, Berkeley Site Director

Safety and Environmental Performance

- Excellent safety performance continues
- 103 weeks without a days away case
- 5 first aid events (rolling 12 month)
- European Safety Week held on site
- British Heart Foundation “heart start” training

Achievements

- Successful level 1 security and emergency arrangements demonstration to Regulator
- Both chute silo machines removed from site for refurbishment – key milestone met
- Three main contracts awarded for ILW project
- Finalist in the CIPR Pride Awards for best event “Safestore”

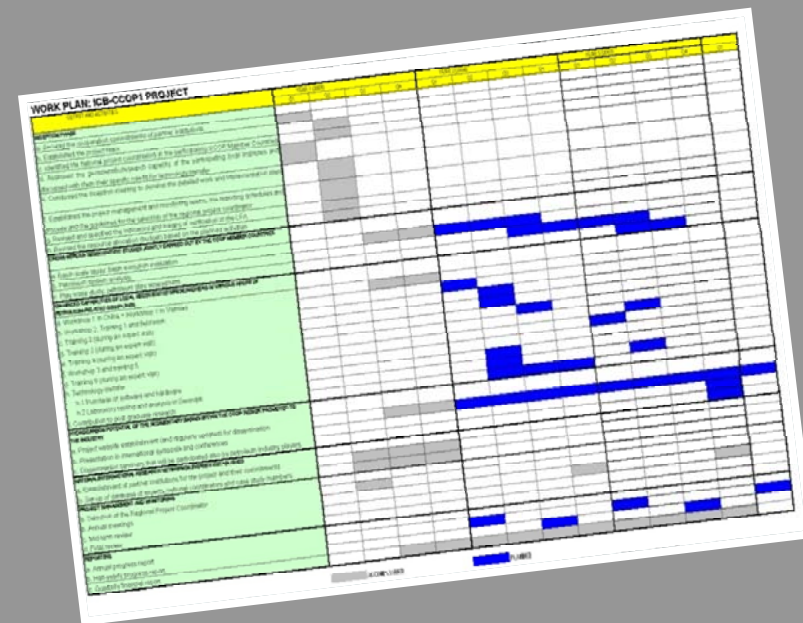

Looking Forward November to March

ILW Programme (Berkeley vaults)

- ILW programme enabling works
- Chute silo work
- Fuel element debris retrieval
- ILW conditioning
- ILW interim storage facility
- Caesium removal plant

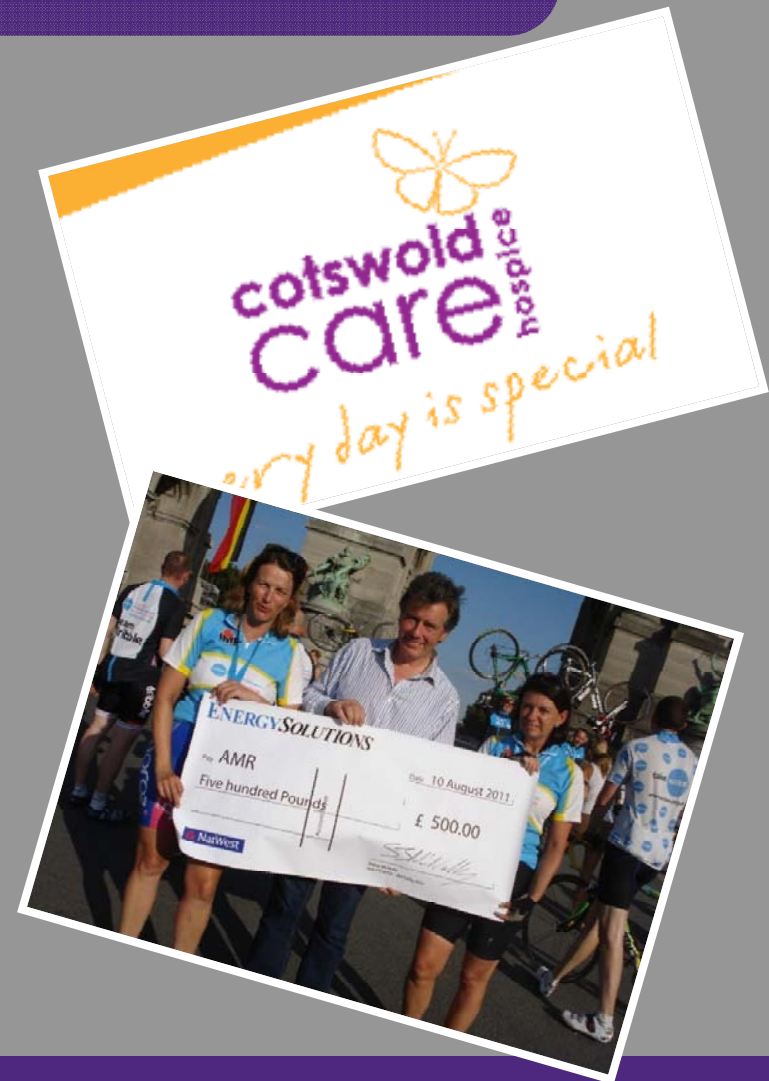

Site Projects

- Boiler disposal
- Process building de-plant
- Shielded area cells 1-10
- Asset management

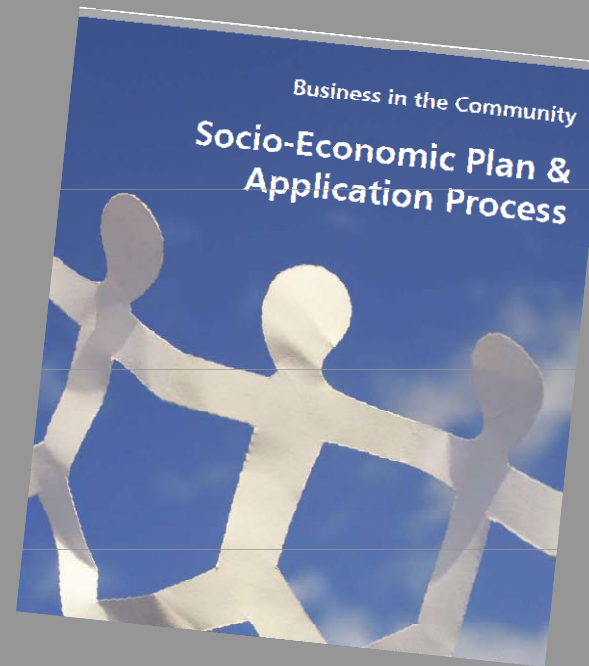

Charity/Community

- Continued fundraising efforts for Cotswold Care Hospice
- Site Christmas card competition with Berkeley Primary School
- Site sponsoring Berkeley Christmas Fair
- £9,000 issued so far as part of the Energy Solutions sponsorship and donation scheme

Magnox Socio-economic Development Scheme

- Magnox socio-economic development scheme – last date for applications 30 November
- Energy Solutions socio-economic support also available for skills based projects
- Please see www.magnoxsites.com for more info

Questions

Berkeley SSG only slides

Boiler Update

- Optioneering work complete
- Award of contract early November
- November to February preparatory work - on and off site
- On going stakeholder engagement planned
- First movement planned for March 2012

Dr Weightman Report

- Dr Mike Weightman (UK's Chief Inspector of Nuclear Installations) has now published his final report on the implications and lessons learnt for the UK nuclear industry of the nuclear crisis in Japan.
- Report is available from www.hse.gov.uk/nuclear
- ONR plan to hold regional feedback events for stakeholders